Task:

Imagine you are Effie Trinket. Write a letter persuading the potential sponsors to support Katniss and Peeta.

- Re-read pages 90-91 where the work Effie has been doing is described.
- Remember, you will be writing on behalf of Katniss and Peeta and should do all you can to encourage the reader to believe in them and at the same time, dismiss the other tributes.
- Tick the persuasive features as you use them in your writing. Think carefully and strategically about what you want to include. Plan it first!

Use as many of the following persuasive features as you can:

- adjectives to describe
- alliteration
- anecdotes
- commands
- different length sentences - short and long for variety
- exaggeration
- opinions
- facts
- opinions
- repetition
- rhetorical questions
- persuasion
- rule of three
- slogans or catch phrases
- using the word ‘We’ or ‘you’ ‘our’

Task:

- Share your work with a partner. Ask them to think about the devices that you have used and what you could do to enhance your work.

- Practice reading your letter aloud. Add some annotations to your work to show where you will add dramatic effects to your delivery such as emphasis, pause, volume and force.
