Task 2: Quotes about books

The quote in the title of this resource is from the American musician and songwriter Frank Zappa (1940–1993).

Look at the quotes below. What do you think they mean? Do you agree or disagree with what they are saying?

1. ‘A room without a book is like a body without a soul.’
   Marcus Tullius Cicero – Roman philosopher and politician (106–43BC)

2. ‘I would never read a book if it were possible for me to talk half an hour with the man who wrote it.’
   Woodrow Wilson – 28th President of the United States (1856–1924)

3. ‘Good friends, good books, and a sleepy conscience: this is the ideal life.’
   Mark Twain – American author (1835–1910)

4. ‘If one cannot enjoy reading a book over and over again, there is no use in reading it at all.’
   Oscar Wilde – Irish writer and poet (1854–1900)

5. ‘You can never get me a cup of tea large enough or a book long enough to suit me.’
   CS Lewis – Irish-British novelist and academic (1898–1963)

6. ‘There are worse crimes than burning books. One of them is not reading them.’

7. ‘A good book has no ending.’
   RD Cumming – Canadian writer and poet

8. ‘Classic – a book which people praise and don’t read.’
   Mark Twain – American author (1835–1910)
