EITHER

‘Coming back into Crythin Gifford I felt like a new man; proud, satisfied, and most of all eager and ready to face and to tackle the worst that Mrs Drablow’s house and those sinister surrounding marshes might have in store for me.’

To what extent is Arthur Kipps to blame for the Woman in Black’s haunting of him?

(Total for question = 40 marks (includes 8 marks for the range of appropriate vocabulary and sentence structures, and accurate use of spelling and punctuation.))

OR

‘She was spirited, lively and alert and yet completely biddable, the expression in her bright eyes, fringed a little by shaggy hair that formed itself somewhat comically into the shape of beetling eyebrows, seemed to me highly intelligent.’

Explore the importance of Spider in The Woman in Black.

You must refer to the context of the novel in your answer.

(Total for question = 40 marks (includes 8 marks for the range of appropriate vocabulary and sentence structures, and accurate use of spelling and punctuation.))