

Comparing 'To Autumn' with 'Home Thoughts from Abroad'

Make notes on each of the following to compare and contrast the poems. Give specific examples to support your ideas.

Point of comparison	'To Autumn' by John Keats (1820)	'Home Thoughts from Abroad' by Robert Browning (1845)
The context/background - under what circumstances was each poem written?
What is the form/structure of the poem?
How does the poet regard the English countryside?

Comparing 'To Autumn' with 'Home Thoughts from Abroad'

How does the poet refer to swallows?
How does the poet make reference to other birds/insects?
How does the poet convey his joy at witnessing a particular season?
How does the poem convey a sense of time passing?		