Chapter 19: character analysis

Pride and Prejudice by Jane Austen

Task

1. Read Chapter 19 and annotate for:
   - differences in language and sentence structures used by Mr Collins and Elizabeth
   - Elizabeth as an unconventional woman, outspoken, unafraid of the restrictions of her sex
   - Elizabeth as a skilled conversationalist and arguer

2. Complete the table, developing your analysis further and including relevant textual evidence.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Point</th>
<th>Relevant quotation</th>
<th>Analysis: unpick the key words and phrases - what do they convey?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>There are differences in the language and sentence structures used by Mr Collins and Elizabeth. This reflects the differences in their characters.</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Elizabeth is an unconventional woman, outspoken and unafraid of the restrictions of her sex.

Elizabeth is a formidable opponent (a skilled arguer who won’t back down!).